

STUDY ABROAD IN PARIS, FRANCE

Live the life of an expatriate writer for 9-10 days. Walk in the footsteps of Ernest Hemingway, Gertrude Stein, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and other famous writers.

LIT115 (Introduction to Literature) 3 credits

ENG221 (Creative Writing) 3 credits

French for travelers I credit

Course substitution available if you've taken any of the required classes

Trip Dates: Approximately May 25-June 3, 2015

Class Meeting Time: Tuesdays 4:30-7:30 beginning February 3

Tentative Activities: Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, river boat ride on the Seine, Catacombs, Pere Lachaise Cemetery, Palace of Versailles, Louvre, Giverny, and more

Estimated Cost and Deadlines: $2,800 (includes airfare, accommodations, transportation in France, entrance fees to sites).

Food, souvenirs, and tuition not included in the $2,800

Trip is limited to 15 students. Please register early to secure your place.

Want to know more?

Information session Monday, October 27, 4:30 in Room 2529

Email: amy.braziller@rrcc.edu or paul.gallagher@rrcc.edu